CANONS OF THIS CHURCH

TITLE I – OF THE NAME AND IDENTITY OF THIS CHURCH

CANON 1.1 THE NAME AND IDENTITY OF THIS CHURCH.

§1.1.01 The Name of this Church.

The legal and official name, and name of primary usage and correct ecclesiastical description, of this Church is “The Anglican Catholic Church.” The former name and ecclesiastical description of this Church, “The Anglican Church in North America,” or its more common form, “The Anglican Church,” may continue to be used in those places where it has heretofore customarily been used if approved by the College of Bishops.¹ Previous names and ecclesiastical descriptions have also included “The Continuing Episcopal Church in the United States of America,” and “The Continuing Anglican Church of Canada.”

§1.1.02 Use of the Name and Ecclesiastical Description in these Canons.

In these Canons, The Anglican Catholic Church shall be and is referred to as “this Church.”

§1.1.03 Registration of the Name of this Church.

The name of this Church and other names and emblems held by or directly associated with it shall be registered or filed, or both as the case may be, in places in which the College of Bishops of this Church shall direct, and that this Church be incorporated in such place or places as the College shall, from time to time, direct.²

² Amended by the XXth Synod of the Original Province (Newport Beach, CA, 2013) to authorize protections of both names and emblems, including arms and logos, used by the Anglican Catholic Church.

TITLE II – OF THE COMMON LAW OF THE CHURCH

CANON 2.1. THE ECCLESIASTICAL LAW OF THIS CHURCH

§2.1.01 Authority in This Church.³

The Church of Christ is a divine institution, created and founded by our Lord Jesus Christ, temporary stewardship of which was entrusted by Him to His personally-chosen apostles, acting collegially, and after them to their chosen successors, the Bishops. Therefore the essential nature, organization, offices, functions, teachings and discipline of this Church are given to us a priori, and the Church is without jurisdiction or authority to alter or amend them.

On this principle, the Ecclesiastical Law of This Church is based upon and may declare divine truths, but it cannot create or change them.

§2.1.02. The Seven Oecumenical Councils and the Canons Accepted by Them.

This Church submits itself and subscribes to the Seven Holy Oecumenical Councils of the undivided Primitive Catholic Church and their Doctrine, Definitions, Letters, Epistles, Acts, and Decrees, both doctrinal and synodal, and the Letters and Decrees of the Regional Councils or Synods and of the Fathers received, accepted, and affirmed by the same Oecumenical Councils, all as received in the Church of England through the year 1543, as well as the Canons, Canonical Acts and Decrees, and the Rulings Canonical thereof or made therein, and the Canonical principles expressed therein, as have been accustomed and used in the Church since their adoption and which have neither been expressly altered or amended by positive action of this Church nor have fallen into and remained in desuetude, to wit,

(a) The Oecumenical Councils of:

Nicaea I in A.D. 325, Constantinople I in A.D. 381, Ephesus in A.D. 431, Chalcedon in A.D. 451, Constantinople II in A.D. 553, Constantinople III in A.D. 680-681, and the continuation thereof in Trullo, called Quinisext, in A.D. 692, and Nicaea II in A.D. 787; and

(b) The Regional or Local Councils or Synods of:

St. Cyprian's Council of Carthage in A.D. 257, Ancyra in A.D. 314, Neocaesarea in A.D. 315, Gangra in the Fourth Century, A.D., Antioch in Encaeniis in A.D. 341, Laodicea in the Fourth Century, A.D., Sardica in or about A.D. 343, Constantinople in A.D. 394, and Carthage in A.D. 419, all as received, accepted, and affirmed by the Council in Trullo by its Canon II, and by the Second Council of Nicaea by its Canon I; and ³ The Constitution of this Church, Article XXII, Section 3(b). Added by the XXIst Synod of the Original Province (Athens, GA, 2015) to make it clear that Ecclesiastical Law may not amend or alter the divine truths of The Church.

- (c) The Canons, Decrees, and Rulings of the Fathers, more particularly those of: “The Holy Apostles,” or the “Apostolical Canons,” The Canons of St. Peter of Alexandria, The Canonical Epistle of St. Gregory Thaumaturgus of Neocaesarea, The Epistle of St. Athanasius to the Monk Ammus, The Epistle of St. Athanasius from his XXXIX Festal Epistle, The Epistle of St. Athanasius to Rufinian, The First Canonical Epistle of St. Basil to Amphilochius, The Second Canonical Epistle of St. Basil to Amphilochius, The Third Canonical Epistle of St. Basil to Amphilochius, The Canonical Epistle of St. Gregory Nyssa to St. Letoius of Mitylene, The Canon of St. Gregory the Theologian on the Canon of Scripture, The Canon of St. Amphilochius on the Canon of Scripture, The Canonical Replies of St. Timothy of Alexandria, The “Prasphanesis” of St. Theophilus of Alexandria, “Warnings” or “Commonitories” of St. Theophilus of Alexandria which Amman received on account of Lycus. The Narrative of St. Theophilus of Alexandria concerning the So-called Cathari,” The Canon from the Epistle of St. Theophilus of Alexandria to Bishop Agatho, The Canon from the Epistle of St. Theophilus of Alexandria to Bishop Menas, The Canonical Epistle of St. Cyril of Alexandria to Domnus, The Canonical Epistle of St. Cyril of Alexandria to the Bishops of Libya and the Pentapolis, and The Canonical Encyclical Epistle of St. Gennadius and his Synod of Constantinople to the Metropolitans and to the Bishop of Rome.

CANON 2.2. MATTERS NOT EXPRESSLY LEGISLATED HEREIN.

§2.2.01 Relationship between the Constitution and Canons and the Beliefs of This Church.

- (a) The Constitution and Canons of The Anglican Catholic Church are based upon, necessarily frequently express, and must be consistent with, the beliefs of This Church. However, the positive law of This Church is not intended to, and does not, either formulate or create those beliefs but is, instead, subsidiary to and an outgrowth of them.
- (b) This Church adheres to the historic, distinctive Anglican approach to doctrinal and theological authority, which begins with Scripture as the inspired word of God containing all doctrines essential for salvation, as interpreted in the light of the Holy Tradition (which is, among other things, a summary of the Church’s historic reflection upon the contents of Scripture), and, when necessary, the use of our God-given human reason in a manner consistent with the aforesaid Scripture and Tradition.
- (c) As set forth in The Solemn Declaration prefaced to The Constitution of This Church, and in The Affirmation of St. Louis, This Church claims, and has, no authority to contradict the central Traditions of the Church Catholic or to reach for itself conclusions that are not matters of the historic Catholic⁴ consensus.

§2.2.02 Reliance upon the General Canon Law and General Common Law of This Church.

Matters not expressly covered by legislation but requiring judgement as to whether they are licit, shall be held to be subject to the General Canon Law⁵ and the General Common Law of This Church.⁶ Sources of this law include: the Constitution and Canons of this Church; the Constitution and Canons of any Province or Diocese or other Jurisdiction of This Church; all other Anglican Laws Ecclesiastical in effect before 1967⁷ and not contrary to, or in conflict with, the Constitution and Canons of this Church or those of a Province, Diocese or other Jurisdiction of This Church. The Church of England formulated the Anglican Laws Ecclesiastical in its Estates in Convocation convoked by Acts of Parliament of 1534⁸ and 1543.⁹ Ecclesiastical or other Acts of Parliament subsequent to those of 1543, or acts of other secular legislatures, or secular courts, or determinations of any body or person who acts in the function of a secular branch or Office of State shall not be considered any part of “Anglican Laws Ecclesiastical” in this Church. Anglican Laws Ecclesiastical not expressly altered or amended by a Synod of This Church, or rendered inapplicable in particular circumstances, are incorporated by reference and are of continued force and effect in This Church.¹⁰

⁴ Amended by the XXIst Synod of the Original Province (Athens, GA, 2015) to make clear that by “Catholic” or “Universal” This Church means the Household of the Faith composed of those particular Churches which (1) descend from the ancient, undivided Church of the Apostles to which we appeal in the historic Creeds; (ii) teach the fullness of the Faith expressed in those Creeds; and (iii) maintain the Sacramental system and undoubted Apostolic ministry that characterized that one ancient Church.

⁵ Corpus Juris Canonici

⁶ Commune Jus Ecclesium

⁷ Amended by the XXth Synod of the Original Province (Newport Beach, CA, 2013) to establish that only such pre-1967 bodies of Anglican ecclesiastical law as do not conflict with the statute law of the ACC, or that of any of its Provinces, Dioceses or other Jurisdictions, are to be considered as Ecclesiastical Law of the Anglican Catholic Church.

⁸ 25 Henry VIII (1534) Chapter 19 (The Royal Supremacy and the Prerogative Royal of the British Crown are not operative in the Anglican Catholic Church.)

⁹ 35 Henry VIII (1543) Chapter 16

¹⁰ Amended by the XXIst Synod of the Original Province (Athens, GA, 2015) to set aside Acts of Parliament subsequent to 1543 and any other subsequent acts of secular legislatures or by secular officials.

CANON 2.3. EXPLANATION OF TERMINOLOGY USED IN CANON LAW.

Terminology used in the Constitution and Canon Law of This Church may, from time to time, be defined and set forth in an official Schedule and Glossary of Terms annexed to these Canons as may be determined by direction of the Primate of This Church, or the Metropolitan of the Original Province of This Church until there be a Primate, after his taking expert advice and with the consent of his College of Bishops.¹¹

CANON 2.4. NORMS OF INTERPRETATION OF THE CONSTITUTION AND CANONS OF THIS CHURCH.

All words and terms used in the Constitution and Canons of this Church, as well as the provisions set forth therein, shall be given their normal meaning and natural construction in accordance with the norms, general practice, and principles of the Laws Ecclesiastical and the accustomed usage of the Church, unless the context shall indicate otherwise, and in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article XI of the Constitution of this Church.

¹¹ Amended by the XXth Synod of the Original Province (Newport Beach, CA, 2013) to clarify that pending the event of the Primacy the Metropolitan of the Original Province may authorize an official Schedule and Glossary of Terms, which shall be Annex 1 to these Canons.

The internal powers and authority of Dioceses and Districts shall be defined by the College of Bishops of this Church or of a Province, as the case may be. The College of Bishops concerned shall appoint or provide for the selection of the initial Bishop Ordinary for each Diocese or District created, having due regard to the petitions of the Clergy and People thereof.¹⁷

¹⁴ Amended by the XXth Synod of the Original Province (Newport Beach, CA, 2013) to clarify the Constitutional authority of the Provinces to establish new Dioceses and assign territories to new or existing Dioceses.

Each Metropolitan of this Church, by the Common Law of the Church, has throughout the Province committed to his charge its pastoral concern and Metropolitan Jurisdiction as Superintendent of all ecclesiastical matters therein, and full Visitorial Powers as their Chief Pastor to correct and supply any defects or deficiencies of other Bishops of that Province during the time of his canonical Visitation as Metropolitan, so that, in behalf of that Diocese or other Jurisdiction, and for the edifying and well-governing of Christ's flock, as the Metropolitan shall deem expedient, means may be taken thereby for the supply of such things as may be lacking or wanting and the correction of such things as may be amiss.

If the Bishop Ordinary of any Diocese or other Jurisdiction so visited objects to or disagrees with the directions and actions of the Metropolitan of that Province in pursuance of his Canonical Visitation, that Bishop Ordinary may file an appeal in writing with both that Metropolitan and his College of Bishops. Thereupon the Metropolitan shall be required, within thirty (30) days of receipt of such appeal, to obtain the assent of a two-thirds (2/3) majority of his College of Bishops to those of his directions and actions to which exception has been taken. If such assent is not secured within that period, then the directions and actions taken by the Metropolitan shall be suspended until the next regular formal canonical meeting of his College of Bishops, and such directions and actions shall thereafter be deemed terminated unless other action be taken by that College of Bishops.

Failing to achieve the same, that Metropolitan may forthwith take the same Parishes or Congregations under his immediate pastoral care and Metropolitan oversight until such time as the truth be tried or other disposition may be made of the case, subject to that Metropolitan having obtained the consent of his comprovincials, excepting the Bishop directly concerned, in the College of Bishops of his Province, assembled within three (3) months of his assuming direct patrimonial jurisdiction and care.

§4.5.03 Participation of the Vicariate General of the Patrimony in Provincial Synods.

When, in the opinion of the Metropolitan so exercising his jurisdiction, it would be impossible for a significant number of Clergymen, Parishes, or Congregations within the Patrimony otherwise to obtain sufficient participation at and through their Diocesan Synod or have their voice adequately heard in affairs of their own Diocese, the Metropolitan may on their behalf request his Provincial Synod to admit the Clerical and Lay Delegates from the Patrimony, chosen as provided by Canon of that Province or by Resolution of that College of Bishops, which Delegates may be seated with vote in that Provincial Synod if that Provincial Synod shall at its discretion so determine.²¹

[Reserved]⁴²

⁴² Added with Reservation by the Xth Synod of the Original Province (Kansas City, MO, 1993).

TITLE VI – OF BISHOPS

CANON 6.1. INHERENT AUTHORITY OF BISHOPS.

§6.1.01 Lawful Episcopal Authority derived from God.

As the Father has sent the Son into the world, even so has the Son sent His Apostles into the world (John 17: 18) and given them the Father’s glory (John 17: 22), and as the Risen Christ breathed forth His Holy Spirit upon the Twelve (John 20: 22), thereby both giving them His peace and ordaining and confirming His consecration of them, saying unto them, “As My Father hath sent Me, even so send I you” (John 20: 21), and to them all in the Person of St. Peter, “Feed My lambs” (John 21: 15) and “Feed My sheep” (John 21: 16 & 17), thus enduing them with His own “power from on high” (Luke 24: 49) to preach “repentance and remission of sins in His Name among all nations” (Luke 24: 47) and to be “witnesses of these things” (Luke 24: 48); even so are the accustomed inherent rights, just authority, and lawful powers of the Apostolic and Catholic Episcopate both collegially and individually derived only from Christ’s Constitution, whence alone comes their “divine and sublime power of governing the Church,”⁴³ deriving their accustomed inherent rights, just authority, and lawful powers both collegially and individually through that rock which is St. Peter’s confession, “Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God” (Matthew 16: 16), and from Christ’s subsequent bestowal of “the keys of the kingdom of heaven” upon him (Matthew 16: 19) and the other Apostles equally (Matthew 18: 18), that “thence, through the changes of times and successions, the ordering of Bishops and the plan of the church flows onward, so that the Church is founded upon the Bishops,” as a “divine law,”⁴⁴ by which all are “subject to the Bishop as to Jesus Christ” and without him should do nothing,⁴⁵ always “saving the dignity due to the Metropolitanate,”⁴⁶ and provided that he acts “with the consent of all,”⁴⁷ or the majority,⁴⁸ of his Apostolic comprovincials acting collegially,⁴⁹ whereby “the Church is established in the Bishop and the Clergy, and all who stand” in the orthodox Faith,⁵⁰ as the Fathers have with one voice ever taught and the Anglican §6.1.02 Lawful limitation thereof.

No Constitution, Canon, or other Act or provision shall or may be made by this Church or any synod or other body thereof which purports to alter that divine Constitution, or to restrict the usual and lawful Episcopal Authority beyond the limits of traditional Anglican Canon Law previously existing in any place or places, but is in its nature ultra vires, void, and of no effect ab initio.

§6.1.03 Constitutions and Canons Regulate, but do not Create, Episcopal Authority.

No Constitution, Canon, or other Act or provision of this Church or any Synod or other body or person thereof can or may create any lawful Episcopal Authority, as it were ex nihilo, but can or may only regulate and guide that which exists by God’s creation, will, and motion.

Each elector shall write on his blank ballot only the names of those nominees that he believes called by God and to be fit Candidates for the Office of Bishop.
- (c) During the counting of ballots, the Synod shall be engaged in prayer, meditation, or the singing of suitable hymns.
- (d) Upon the completion of balloting, the President of the Synod shall announce only the names of those nominees receiving a two-thirds (2/3) majority or more in each of the three orders.

§6.2.06 Election.

Any nominee who received no less than a two-thirds (2/3) majority cast in each of the three (3) orders of that Synod on any round of balloting therein shall be elected a Candidate for the Office of Bishop in that Province. Such Candidates shall be named by the President to the Synod at the conclusion of that joint session.

§6.2.07 Certification.

Each Candidate so elected shall be certified by the President, the Prolocutor of the Senate of Clergy, and the Speaker of Assembly of Laity of that Provincial Synod. An Official List of the certified Candidates shall be sent to each Diocese or other Jurisdiction within or subject to the authority of that Province.

CANON 6.3. ELECTION TO VACANT SEES.

§6.3.01 Issuing of Writs of Election by the Metropolitan, and Writs of Summons.

The Metropolitan shall canonically confirm that Bishop-Elect's election unless he finds a constitutional or canonical impediment to that election or to that Bishop-Elect's ordination and consecration.⁵⁵

TITLE IX – OF ECCLESIASTICAL COURTS

CANON 9.1. DIOCESAN COURT OF THE ORDINARY OR THE CONSISTORY COURT.

§9.1.01 In each Diocese or other Jurisdiction of this Church.

In each Diocese or other Jurisdiction of this Church, there shall be a Diocesan Court of the Ordinary or Consistory Court, through which the judicial authority of the Ordinary or Episcopal Authority shall be exercised, and the membership of which shall be determined by Diocesan Canon or Canons of other Jurisdiction, consistent with the principles of the Constitution of this Church.

§9.1.02 Jurisdiction of the Court.

The jurisdiction of the Diocesan Court of the Ordinary or the Consistory Court shall be as specified in the Constitution of this Church and all Canons thereof and by the Canons of that Diocese or other Jurisdiction.

§9.1.03 President of the Court.

When a Bishop of a Diocese or other Jurisdiction does not preside in person in his Consistory Court, he shall appoint an Officialis or Official Principal as his deputy to preside in and on his behalf, and for and in his place and stead.

Appeals will lie in such instance not to the Ordinary, but directly to the Court of the Metropolitan or the Provincial Court.

Such provision is not meant to be construed as a denial of the inalienable custom that any Diocesan or Ordinary of any other Jurisdiction, may reserve unto himself the ancient right of presiding in his own person in his Diocesan or Consistory Court as Judge on any occasion not in conflict with the Constitution and these Canons.

In such case, the Bishop may choose to associate with himself his Officialis or Official Principal to act as his Assessor.

§9.1.04 Church Advocate.

Each Bishop Ordinary of a Diocese or other Jurisdiction of this Church may appoint a Church Advocate to conduct prosecutions, or failing appointment by the Ordinary, the Court may make the appointment as needed.

CANON 9.2. COURT OF THE METROPOLITAN OR THE PROVINCIAL COURT.

§9.2.01 Members of the Court.

Those named to the Court shall be chosen as set forth in Section 9.2.01.

(b) Vacancies.

Vacancies occurring during the term of any member of the Court may be filled by the Metropolitan, with the advice and consent of his College of Bishops, from among the order wherein such vacancy occurred, to serve until the adjournment of the next regular meeting of the Provincial Synod, at which meeting a member of that order shall be chosen by the appropriate House thereof to serve out the remainder of the unexpired term, if any.

[(c)¹⁰⁴]

§9.2.03 Jurisdiction of the Court.

The jurisdiction of each Court of the Metropolitan or Provincial Court shall be as specified in the Constitution and Canons of this Church and by the Constitution and Canons of that Province.

§9.2.04 President of the Court.

When the Metropolitan does not preside in person in his Provincial Court, he shall appoint an Officialis or Official Principal as his deputy to preside in and on his behalf, and for and in his place and stead. Appeals will lie in such instance not to the Metropolitan, but to the High Court of the Holy Synod. Such an appointment is not meant to be construed as a denial of the custom that the Metropolitan may reserve to himself the ancient right of presiding in his Provincial Court in person as judge on any occasion not in conflict with the Constitution and these Canons.

¹⁰³ Amended by the XVth Synod of the Original Province (New Orleans, LA, 2003) to clarify the provision.

¹⁰⁴ This provision dealt only with actions taken by the IVth Synod of the Original Province (Kansas City, MO, 1982), and is now redundant.

(b) Conflict in the Hearing of Appeals.

Whenever an appeal is from the Metropolitan's own Diocesan Court, or from him as Ordinary, he shall appoint, by right, the next Bishop Ordinary senior by consecration in that Province, able and willing, to preside in his stead in that matter. If an appeal is from the Diocesan Court or from the Consistory Court of any Ordinary, or from any Diocesan or Bishop Ordinary on the Provincial Court or Court of the Metropolitan, the Court shall choose another Bishop of that Province, able and willing, so to sit in his stead in that matter.

(c) Suspensive Effect and Devolutive Effect in Appeals.

When an appeal shall have been commenced from any sentence, decision, judgement, or decree of any Diocesan or Consistory Court, tribunal, or Ordinary of that Province by the giving and serving of notice of appeal as may be provided by applicable Canon or by Official Rule or Regulation of the subject appellate Court or tribunal, the Bishop Ordinary or duly appointed Official thereof or Court or tribunal from whose sentence, decision, judgement, or decree the appeal is taken, shall not proceed to enforcement thereof, as the appeal is under suspensive effect until further order of the appellate Court or tribunal; provided however, that no person holding Office or in Holy Orders who has been adjudged to be inhibited, suspended, deprived, deposed, removed, or degraded shall be entitled to exercise the powers or authority of his Order or Ministerial or other Office affected by such sentence, decision, judgement, or decree during the pendency of the appeal; and further provided that no appeal under devolutive effect from a mandatory or prohibitory direction of the Bishop or duly appointed Official thereof, having Ordinary jurisdiction over the person, place, or thing so mandated or prohibited shall stay such direction or excuse non-compliance therewith, except it seem good to the Metropolitan of that Province.

- (b) If the accused party shall not admit or confess the offence alleged, and the Bishop of the Jurisdiction wherein the offence is alleged to have occurred be of the opinion that there is probable cause for further enquiry, that Bishop shall forward the written accusation signed by the Promoters in Section 10.1.02 to the Ordinary of the Diocese or other Jurisdiction within which the accused is canonically resident. In which case the latter Bishop shall elect either to authorise the forwarding Bishop to institute proceedings against the Clergyman in accordance with the Canons, rules, and regulations governing discipline in respect of the offence alleged in the Court of the forwarding jurisdiction, or to refer the matter to his own Court as if the matter had arisen in his own Jurisdiction.

§10.1.07 Offences by Clergy Licensed Only.

If any Clergyman is charged as described in Section 10.1.05 in any Diocese or other Jurisdiction of this Church in which he is licensed but in which he is not canonically resident, the Ordinary of that Diocese or such other Jurisdiction may proceed, upon the consent of the Bishop Ordinary in whose jurisdiction the accused is canonically resident, as if the accused were canonically resident where he is licensed.

If such consent is withheld, the Bishop refusing such consent shall proceed without delay to trial of the charges in accordance with the Canons of his own Diocese or such other Jurisdiction.

§10.1.08 Limitation.

No presentment shall be made or conviction had for any offence, unless the offence shall have been committed within five (5) years immediately preceding the time of presentment, except that in a case of a conviction in a Court of Record exercising criminal jurisdiction, a presentment may be made at any time within one (1) year after conviction notwithstanding five (5) years may have elapsed since commission of the offence.

§10.1.09 Inhibition.

- (a) If presentment shall have been made against any Clergyman, or in the case of any Clergyman convicted of any crime or misdemeanour involving immorality, or against whom a judgement has been entered in a Court of Record in a civil cause involving immorality, or in the case of the abandonment of the Communion of this Church by a Clergyman, the Bishop in whose jurisdiction the Clergyman is canonically resident may, upon probable cause, inhibit that Clergyman from officiating in that jurisdiction until after the judgement of the Trial Court becomes final, or sentence has been pronounced.

Also,

- (b) In every case in which from the nature of the offence charged it appears to the Diocesan Bishop or Bishop Ordinary that a great scandal is likely to arise from the alleged offender continuing to perform the services of the Church, while the charge is pending, the Bishop may cause a notice to be served on the offender inhibiting him from performing any service of the Church either within the Diocese or other Jurisdiction of the Bishop or elsewhere in this Church, pending investigation, or until the Bishop shall withdraw the inhibition, or until sentence has been given in the case.
- (c) No Clergyman inhibited under the preceding Sub-sections of this Canon shall be deprived, during continuance of such inhibition, of any of the emoluments of his Office.
- (d) The Diocesan Bishop or Bishop Ordinary may at any time revoke such inhibition.

CANON 10.2. TRIALS FOR HERESY.

§10.2.01 Options for Trial.

By the Common Law of the Church, this Church recognises that any Bishop of a Diocese or other Jurisdiction may try cases of offences against the Doctrine and Faith of the Church in his own Consistory Court, or he may choose to forward such cases by Letters of Request to the Court of the Metropolitan or the Provincial Court for trial and disposition in the first instance.

§10.2.02 Intervention by Metropolitan.

Also it is clearly recognized in this Church, by the same Common Law of the Church, that if any such Bishop be negligent or reluctant in dealing with any such offence or situation within his jurisdiction, especially wherein there is open scandal or harm to the Church or the faithful, the Metropolitan may order such a case to be tried in his own Provincial Court in the first instance, for the protection of the Church and the faithful, whether that Bishop has consented and agreed or not.

CANON 10.3. DEPRIVATION OR DEPOSITION FROM HOLY ORDER.

§10.3.01 Deprivation from Ecclesiastical Office or Benefice.

Unless otherwise provided herein, no Clergyman of this Church may be deprived of an ecclesiastical Office or benefice, or be deposed from the Sacred Ministry, except he first be properly charged and tried in the Consistory Court wherein he is canonically resident, and upon the determination by the presiding Judge, with the consent of the majority of the Court, that such is the sentence and that such sentence is appropriate to the offence tried. The Bishop of that Diocese or other Jurisdiction shall then enter the Court with his Chancellor, if there be one, and the two (2) Priests of seniority of that Diocese or other Jurisdiction; and the Bishop, after being informed by the Judge of the nature of the offence and having declared himself satisfied that it was proved, shall read aloud, sign, and affix his Seal to the sentence of deprivation from such ecclesiastical Office or benefice.

§10.3.02 Deposition from the Sacred Ministry.

In sentences of deposition from the Sacred Ministry, the Bishop of that Diocese or jurisdiction, in the presence of the witnesses, shall himself pronounce aloud and sign the sentence of deposition, affixing thereto his seal. The witnesses shall attest the document of deposition.

§10.3.03 Appeal from Sentence of Deposition.

If the sentence of deposition from the Sacred Ministry is appealed, it shall be appealed directly to the Metropolitan of that Province, who shall summon the Clergyman to appear before him in person. After which the Metropolitan shall make his own determination of the case; he shall either confirm the sentence, or assign it to his Provincial Court for further hearing, or make other adjudication.

§10.3.04 Sentence of Deprivation.

Upon a sentence of deprivation being pronounced, the connection between the Offender and his Congregation, Parish, or Mission shall be ipso facto severed, and all offices, income, stipends, rents, issues, profits, and emoluments, if any, which he may hold by virtue of that Office or Ministry from which he has been removed, shall wholly cease and determine.

Any Clergyman so sentenced shall be and remain so deprived until restored by the Bishop who deprived him or by his Successor in that See or other Jurisdiction, and while deprived, and until restored, shall be incapable of holding Office or performing any function in any Diocese or other Jurisdiction of this Church.

A certified copy of the sentence shall be sent to the Offender and copies thereof shall be sent to all Clergymen canonically resident within that Diocese or other Jurisdiction, and shall be read or given such publicity as the Bishop thereof may deem expedient.

§10.3.05 Sentence of Deposition.

When a sentence of deposition from the Sacred Ministry is pronounced, that sentence shall include all the consequences of deprivation, and at the same time shall depose the Offender from any Office he may hold and from the Sacred Ministry entirely, and shall also permanently inhibit and suspend him from any exercise thereof.

Any Clergyman so sentenced shall be and remain so deposed from the Sacred Ministry and may only be restored by the Bishop who deposed him, or by his Successor in that See or other Jurisdiction, upon the grant of a specific Faculty from the Primate of this Church to so do, or, there being yet no Primate, then the Metropolitan of the Original Province of this Church.

CANON 10.4. DEGRADATION FROM HOLY ORDER.

§10.4.01 Degradation.

When any offence proven in any Court of this Church, is of such gravity that the sentence of degradation is to be pronounced upon any Clergyman canonically resident in that Diocese or other Jurisdiction, the Bishop thereof shall pronounce the sentence only with the assistance of two (2) other Bishops having jurisdiction within that Province. It shall be determined by the Court and the Bishop whether to proceed to the Solemn Ceremony of Degradation.

§10.4.02 Appeal from Sentence of Degradation.

If the sentence is appealed, it shall be appealed directly to the Metropolitan of that Province himself, who shall summon the Clergyman to appear before him in person. After which the Metropolitan shall make his own determination of the case. He shall either confirm the sentence, or assign it to his Provincial Court for further hearing, or make other adjudication.

§10.4.03 Sentence of Degradation.

When a sentence of degradation from Holy Order is pronounced, that sentence shall include not only all the consequences of deprivation and deposition from the Sacred Ministry entirely, but also at the same time shall divest the Offender of the Office and Orders conferred on him by ordination.

CANON 10.5. NOTICE OF SENTENCES OF DEPRIVATION, DEPOSITION, OR DEGRADATION.

Any Bishop of this Church pronouncing the sentence of deprivation from ecclesiastical Office or deposition from the Sacred Ministry or degradation from Holy Order as set out in Canons 10.3 and 10.4 shall send written notice thereof to all the Bishops Ordinary of this Church and to all the Metropolitans or Primates of Churches in which this Church is in formal or canonical Communion. Such notice shall also be promulgated in any Official Gazette designated by the College of Bishops.¹¹³

No Clergyman in charge of any Congregation, Parish, or Mission of this Church, or in case of any parochial vacancy or his absence, no Churchwarden, Vestryman, or Trustee of such Congregation, Parish, or Mission shall permit any person to officiate or preach therein, without sufficient evidence of his being duly licensed or appointed by the Ordinary of that Jurisdiction.

§10.6.02 Inhibition of Unlicensed Clergy.

When a Bishop Ordinary is aware that a Clergyman not of his jurisdiction or not holding his license, is officiating or about to officiate within his jurisdiction, and when the Bishop shall have good reason to believe that doubts exist regarding that Clergyman's orthodoxy, canonical ordination, or good morals, then the Bishop may inhibit him from officiating or preaching within his Diocese or other Jurisdiction, by a writing addressed to him, and to the Clergy, Churchwardens, and Vestries thereof.

§10.6.03 Discipline of Facilitating Clergy.

Any Clergyman permitting an unlicensed or unappointed person to officiate or preach for more than one Sunday or, after receipt of the Bishop's inhibition, permitting such inhibited person to perform any clerical function in the Congregation, Parish, or Mission committed to his Charge and Cure, shall be proceeded against by the Bishop for breach of canonical obedience and other applicable provisions of these Canons.

CANON 10.7. ABANDONMENT OF THE COMMUNION OF THIS CHURCH.

§10.7.01 Certification of Abandonment.

If any Bishop, Priest, or Deacon shall abandon the Communion of this Church, either by an open renunciation of the Doctrine, Discipline, or Worship thereof, or by his de facto or de jure admission into any religious body not in formal or canonical Communion with this Church, or in any other way or manner, it shall be the duty of the Council of Advice, or other such body, of the Jurisdiction within which that Bishop, Priest, or Deacon is canonically resident, after enquiry to certify the fact to the Metropolitan of that Province in the case of a Bishop, or to the Bishop Ordinary of that Jurisdiction in the case of a Priest or Deacon.

The Certification shall be accompanied by a Statement of the facts, acts, or declarations which constitute abandonment, which Certificate and Statement shall be recorded in the records of that Diocesan Court of the Ordinary or Consistory Court and with the Recorder or Registrar of that Jurisdiction, and shall be deemed by the Metropolitan or Bishop Ordinary to be equivalent to a renunciation of the Ministry of the Church by that Bishop, Priest, or Deacon himself.

§10.7.02 Suspension, Inhibition, Notice and Service.

- (a) In the case of a Priest or Deacon, the Bishop Ordinary of that Jurisdiction may then suspend that Priest or Deacon from any Office, benefice, or appointment which he may hold or inhibit him from officiating in that Jurisdiction until the deposition proceedings under this Canon have been resolved or terminated. Written Notice of the suspension or inhibition shall be given by that Bishop Ordinary, with a copy of the Certificate and Statement, to the Priest or Deacon so suspended or inhibited that unless he shall, within thirty (30) days of service thereof upon him, transmit to that Bishop Ordinary:

If service cannot be effected by one of the preceding means, then the Metropolitan or Bishop Ordinary concerned may order service to be effected by publication in a journal of general circulation in the place of the accused clergyman's last known abode or by any other method reasonably calculated to give him actual notice of the proceedings against him.¹¹⁴

If the Priest or Deacon concerned shall deny or retract as provided in this Canon, that Bishop ordinary may nevertheless, if he deems proper, make enquiry into the matter upon written notice to the Priest or Deacon and if he should be of the opinion that the complaint was true and that the circumstances are such that the Priest or Deacon should be deposed from the exercise of the Ministry, it shall be the duty of that Bishop ordinary to forward all the pertinent documents, declarations, and certificates to his Diocesan Court of the Ordinary or Consistory Court. The documents so forwarded to the Court shall serve in lieu of an accusatory libellus and shall be deemed to constitute a presentment under the instance jurisdiction of that Court.¹¹⁶

(b) Dispensation from the Necessity of Faculties in periculo mortis:

Notwithstanding anything contained in the previous Sections of this Canon, any Priest may exercise this ministry anywhere in respect of any person or persons who may be in present danger of death, or if there be some other urgent or weighty cause.

And concerning the dying, the ancient Canonical Law is still to be kept and maintained, that if anyone be at the point of death, the Priest shall not deprive him, if he be penitent, of either the last and most indispensable Absolution from all sins, excommunications, and censures, or thereafter of the most holy Viaticum.¹⁴⁰ And any Priest may absolve the dying even from Sins Reserved.

(c) Canonical Dispensation from the need of Consent from the Priest Having Jurisdiction to Hear Confessions.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the previous Sections of this Canon, any Priest who has the express canonical authority to exercise such ministry as set forth in Section 12.5.01, and who has by institution or admission, the Charge of any Parish, Congregation, Mission, or other Cure within this Church and the Cure of Souls therein, may exercise this ministry in any Diocese or other Jurisdiction of this Church or in any place and at any time in respect of any person belonging to such Priest's Cure and canonically resident therein, being subject to such Priest's Spiritual Jurisdiction, when such person desirous of being shriven reasonably so requests such Priest to hear his or her confession.

§12.5.04 Inviolability of the Seal of Confession.¹⁴¹

- (a) If any person confess his secret and hidden sin to a Bishop or Priest for the unburdening of his or her conscience or for the opening of his or her grief and disclosing or revealing the wounds of his or her sin, and to receive spiritual consolation and advice, and ease of mind and the remedy and benefit of Absolution from him, or for any of these foregoing reasons: such Bishop or Priest is straightly charged and admonished that he do not at any time reveal and make known to any person whatsoever any sin, crime, offence, grief, or matter so committed to his trust and secrecy, such Bishop or Priest so revealing or making known or betraying or identifying the sinner in any manner or fashion or for any reason, whether by word, writing, or sign, directly or indirectly, openly or covertly. or in any other way manner, or means, being excommunicated ipso facto upon commission of such offence and likewise being subject to deposition and deprivation from his Office necessarily made and such deprivation, deposition, and excommunication strictly Reserved to the Primate of the Church, or until there is a Primate, the Metropolitan himself of that Province.

¹⁴¹ Also known and designated as the Divine Seal, the Canonical Seal, and the Sacramental Seal or Sigillum Confessionis sive Sacramentale.

- (b) Neither shall any such Bishop or Priest make use of any matter or knowledge¹⁴² gained in or acquired through or otherwise disclosed unto him in the exercise of such ministry to the offence, detriment, harm, or advantage of the person from whom he has received it, even if there be no danger of betraying the identity of such person aforementioned, nor shall any such Bishop or Priest, who is in a position of authority in any place, make use of any such matter or knowledge¹⁴³ thus gained or acquired in the exercise of his authority, either directly or indirectly, whether the exercise of authority be in either the external forum, or the internal forum such use being wholly forbidden, save within the Tribunal of Penance¹⁴⁴ when such Bishop or Priest be either the Confessor or the Penitentiary to that person or in such causes, cases, or matters of Sins Reserved as set forth in Section 12.5.05, that Bishop or Priest remaining under the usual and absolute Seal, under pain of excommunication, deposition, and deprivation.

 - (v) those who act as interpreters during the actual confession.
- If any of them so rashly do violate the Seal, they shall be punished with wholesome penalties, according to the seriousness of their offence, the pain of greater excommunication not being excluded.
- (d) The solemn obligation of the Seal of the Confession to silence on the part of those whom such obligation devolves does not terminate upon or with the death of the penitent concerned, but likewise is perpetually binding upon all those to whom such obligation has devolved, with the appropriate penalties as above.
- (e) If anyone shall attempt to coerce, threaten, or constrain any such Bishop or Priest or person named in the preceding Sub-sections of this Section to violate the Seal of Confession in any manner, the person making such attempt shall be excommunicated ipso facto and, if such person be in any Holy Order, shall

In particular, he shall not contract a marriage, or do or suffer any act or thing, which would be violative of order or discipline, or which, if he were a candidate for Holy Orders, prevent him from being admitted thereto. §12.12.04 Mode of Settling Differences.

- (a) If for any urgent reason a Rector or Incumbent, not being a Priest-in-Charge, of a Parish, Congregation or other Cure, or if the body of any such Cure described in Section 12.12.01 wherein that Priest is canonically and lawfully elected, instituted, inducted and beneficed, and such Cure be committed to his Charge, shall desire a separation and dissolution of the pastoral relation and all sacerdotal connection, notice in writing of such desire shall be given by either party to the Bishop Ordinary of that Jurisdiction.
- (b) The Bishop Ordinary shall take into consideration any difference or disagreement between the parties, or any other circumstances which may be claimed to warrant a dissolution of the pastoral relation in the interests of the Church; and, in the event of the Bishop Ordinary being unable by his Godly judgement to settle such difference or disagreement or to put an end to any difficulty which may have arisen or to effect an amicable settlement between the parties, he shall then proceed to ask the advice and consent of the Priest members of his Council of Advice, and, proceeding with their aid and counsel in tribunal, shall be the ultimate arbiter and judge within that Jurisdiction. The decision to convene such a tribunal shall be conveyed in writing promptly to the parties.

During the time of such inhibition, the Bishop Ordinary may appoint another Clergyman to supply the place of the inhibited Clergyman.
- (f) The judgement following the hearing before the Bishop, which shall be made with all convenient speed, shall be either that the pastoral relation between the parties shall cease and determine at a time and upon condition and terms therein specified, or that the relation shall not be terminated; and such judgement shall be binding upon both parties.

If at the hearing, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Priest members of his Council of Advice, shall decide that the term of tenure of the incumbency or benefice of that Rector or Incumbent shall cease, the Bishop shall notify the Rector or Incumbent of such decision in writing, either personally or by registered letter to his last known place of abode; and at the expiration of three (3) months from the serving or sending of such notice that Parish, Congregation or other Cure, the incumbency or benefice thereof shall become vacant, provided that no appeal has been taken within three (3) months from the rendering of such decision.

TITLE XV – OF THE CHRISTIAN FAMILY, MARRIAGE, AND THE SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE

CANON 15.1. THE SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE.

§15.1.01 Deliberate Abortion is Murder.

The defencelessness of the unborn entails a great responsibility on the part of every Christian, and especially on the part of each of his or her parents. The deliberate and wilful abortion, directly procured, of any unborn child at any time from the moment of conception, is always an act of grave sin not only by the person who procures the same, but also by such person or persons who effectuate the same or acquiesce therein.

§15.1.0 2 Deliberate Killing of the Deformed or Defective is Murder.

The direct, deliberate, and wilful killing of that which is born of any woman, whether such child be deformed, defective, misformed, unformed, or otherwise misshapen or monstrous, is likewise murder, for however imperfect such child may be, even if difficult to recognise outwardly as a child, It may be assumed to be human and having a human soul, for it is the offspring of human parents. Such child should be baptised, if necessary sub conditione, when it is still in the womb, and if it lives, such child should be again baptised conditionally, and ordinary means should be taken to preserve such child of life, nor shall it be licit to deprive such child of nourishment or take any other direct, deliberate, or wilful means to end or shorten the life thereof.

§15.1.03 Euthanasia is Murder.

This Church reaffirms that it is the Lord Who is the Giver of Life, and that the wilful, intentional, and direct taking of any innocent human life is murder, whether disguised as “euthanasia”, or mercy-killing,” or under any other name. This Church’s affirmation of the Sanctity of Life excludes support for, encouragement of or advocating in favour of euthanasia or suicide, including any support, encouragement and advocacy for these measures in the context of otherwise licit discussion of decisions concerning the treatment of pain and the end of life.¹⁵³

§15.1.04 Alleviation of Pain Allowed.

In keeping with traditional Catholic Moral Theology, it is licit to administer such drugs or treatment to the dying as to alleviate pain or to induce necessary sleep, all upon qualified and competent medical or nursing advice, but care must be taken to insure that the dying person is spiritually prepared before administering any such drugs or treatment, and that the direct purpose and intention thereof is not to shorten life. Moreover, there is no absolute need to prolong life indefinitely when, in the considered judgement or opinion of qualified and competent medical or nursing personnel, it has been despaired of, especially if the life in question be vegetal or otherwise lack vital signs of human reaction. In the latter case above all, extraordinary or heroic means need not be employed or continued to sustain life, but the natural processes may licitly be allowed to take their course.

¹⁵³ Amended by the XXIst Synod of the Original Province (Athens, GA, 2015) to condemn solicitation in favour of euthanasia or suicide.

CANON 15.2. POWER OF THE CIVIL AUTHORITY.

Holy Church has universally upheld the sanctity of human life, and therefore this Church continues to condemn the wilful, intentional, and direct taking of innocent human life. Nevertheless such prohibition has never in Catholic Canon Law or Moral Theology disallowed, nor does this Church claim the power to disallow, the just exercise of the power of the Civil Authority to “restrain with the civil sword all stubborn evil doers,” but admits that it “beareth not the sword in vain, for [it] is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil”¹⁵⁴ and St. Thomas Aquinas expressly says of capital punishment lawfully administered, “such killing is not murder”, allowing as the just cause for capital punishment “of an evil-doer” the fact that “it is directed to the welfare of the whole community”.¹⁵⁵ This Church therefore recognises the right of an individual to defend himself with such force as may be necessary, and the right of the State both to defend itself against individual malefactors by putting them to death for heinous and grievous offences, and against its enemies in a just war in defence of the state and as a last resort, in which war it is lawful for Christian men, at the command of the lawful authority of the civil power, to bear arms and serve.

CANON 15.3. HOLY MATRIMONY.

§15.3.01 Indissolubility, Nature, and Purposes of Holy Matrimony.¹⁵⁶

- (a) Marriage has its roots and basis in God’s plan for His created order. Among the essential features of that created order is that human beings are divided into two, distinct, and complementary biological sexes, one male and one female. Because these two sexes are genetically conditioned, they are immutable from conception. Much of each individual’s spiritual, psychological, and physical life is a product and reflection of his or her sex at conception. The occasional, extremely rare occurrences of genetic abnormalities in humans do not derogate from these truths, any more than do any other individual genetic or developmental defects. This Church utterly rejects and denounces as false teachings the propositions:

¹⁵⁵ Aquinas, Summa Theologica, IIa. IIae Quest. 64, art 2, art. 2.; Ia. IIae Quest. 96, art. 5.

¹⁵⁶ Amended by the XXth Synod of the Original Province (Newport Beach, CA, 2013) to emphasize the Ecclesiastical Law of the Church that Holy Matrimony is solely between one man and one woman, in their sex as they were brought into this world by God.

- (i) that individuals may validly choose or alter their natural sexual identities; or
 - (ii) that it is either natural or healthy for an individual's sexual preference or sexual orientation to vary from the preference or orientation inherently appropriate to the individual's sex at conception.
- (b) As a direct result of that immutable division into two and only two complementary sexes, and of the need to provide the most stable possible setting for the procreation and nurture of children, the marriage of men with women is in the first instance a matter of the law of nature, and all other levels of marriage begin with and build upon that natural law foundation.
- (c) Because marriage is the foundational unit of all good societies and because all sound societies have a profound interest in the circumstances in which children are born and reared, among the very first issues that civil societies undertake to foster and regulate is that of marriage. This results in the addition to natural law marriage of a second level of civil law marriage. However, as St. Thomas Aquinas observed, when the civil law attempts to contradict or violate the natural law, the result is not true law but is instead a nullity.¹⁵⁷
- (d) The coming of our Lord Jesus Christ introduced a new incarnational principle into human life, as part of which He took several preëxisting customs, practices, and institutions and imbued them with a new and sacramental significance, making them direct covenant channels of God's Grace.¹⁵⁸ One of these institutions that He thus transformed was that of marriage, so that natural law marriages, and usually but not always civil law marriages, can, if they comply with the requirements of the sacramental system, become themselves Sacraments and covenanted channels of God's Grace. Thus Christian Marriage or Matrimony, which is both a Sacrament and a covenanted channel of divine Grace, has an essentially and fundamentally divine, religious, and ecclesiastical significance that transcends and, where necessary, supersedes both the institution of civil law marriage and any positive civil law that purports to contradict or violate the law of nature.¹⁵⁹ However, while Christian Marriage or Matrimony thus transcends civil law marriage, it is always grounded upon, and must comport with, natural law marriage.

- (e) In accordance with the foregoing truths this Church affirms, according to our Lord's teaching, that Christian marriage is in its nature a union permanent and life-long, for better for worse, of one natural, biological man with one natural, biological woman, till death them do part, to the exclusion of all others on either side, for the procreation and nurture of children, for the hallowing and right direction of the natural instincts and affections, and for the mutual society, help and comfort which the one ought to have of the other, both in prosperity and adversity, and to that end each man and woman entering together into that union shall make and subscribe before the Solemnisation of Matrimony the following Declaration of Intention and Commitment to Holy Matrimony in the presence of the Officiating Clergyman and two (2) witnesses:

DECLARATION OF INTENTION AND COMMITMENT TO HOLY MATRIMONY.

We, A.B. and C.D., desiring to receive the blessing of Holy Matrimony within the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, do solemnly declare:

That we hold and accept Holy Matrimony to be a mystical and lifelong union of husband and wife, as it is set forth in the Form of Solemnisation of Matrimony in the Book of Common Prayer, and that this union forms an indissoluble Sacramental bond so long as we both shall live, which cannot be broken or dissolved by any action of civil authority;

That each of us is totally and unselfishly committed and bound to the other, calling continually upon the Grace of Almighty God and the power of the Holy Spirit to enable each of us, always and unconditionally, to extend to the other, joyfully and lovingly, the fellowship, support, encouragement, and understanding which is required for the fulfilment of the same;

That we know Holy Matrimony to be God's loving provision for the procreation (if it may be) and the gift and heritage of children, and for their physical, intellectual, moral, and spiritual nurture and upbringing in God's faith and fear, and for the safeguarding and benefit of society;

That we bind ourselves mutually to cleave unto the oneness of the flesh that is the Will of God, vowing to refrain from any form of sexual activity outside the bonds of this union;

That we are both jointly and individually committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, and we pledge ourselves unreservedly to seek His Will in all matters

¹⁵⁹ Official Footnote: This is a specific application of the general rule of divine supremacy over secular authority that was declared by our Lord when He taught that we are to render to the state authorities the things that are the state's but we are to render to God the things that are God's. affecting our family life, to hold Him in our hearts as the Head and centre of our family, and to call upon God the Holy Spirit to keep us in that obedience; and

That we do accept the Doctrine and Discipline of Holy Church in all things affecting our union, and do promise to seek the help and counsel of a Priest of the Church at any time when there is any threat to any aspect of our union, and before any action is taken that might cause irreparable or permanent damage to this relationship.

§15.3.02 Legal and Canonical Requirements.¹⁶⁰

In temporal jurisdictions where the secular law concerning marriage may be applied without conflict with the laws of this Church, and where the secular law permits a civil marriage of one man with one woman to be accomplished simultaneously with the solemnization of Holy Matrimony, and where the enabling requirements of the secular law may be met without compromising the Ecclesiastical Law of this Church, an Officiating Clergyman of this Church may perform the civil union of one natural, biological man with one natural, biological woman.

The solemnization of Holy Matrimony being a Sacrament, every Officiating Clergyman of this Church shall ensure compliance with the Ecclesiastical Laws of this Church governing its administration. He shall have instructed the said man and the said woman seeking marriage in this Church's Doctrine of Marriage and the nature, meaning, and purpose of Holy Matrimony, and the need of God's Grace in order that they may discharge aright their obligations as Married persons or he shall have ascertained that they have both received such instruction from other Clergymen of this Church known by him to be competent and responsible.

§15.3.03 Human Sexuality.¹⁶¹

This Church believes and holds that God has immutably created each person at conception as either a male or a female. These two distinct but complementary biological sexes are not personal or social constructs but, instead, are biological facts that, taken together, reflect the image and likeness of God. As a result of this disposition, God intends males to mate with females and females to mate with males and any individual's contrary choice is a violation of God's plan, as well as a violation of natural law. A person who attempts to reject his or her biological sex thereby also rebels against God by rejecting God's image and God's design imparted at conception.

Otherwise, the Banns of Marriage shall be published openly in the Church on three (3) consecutive Sundays during Divine Worship, after the accustomed manner. After the final publishing, their publication shall be recorded as required, and if the marriage is to be solemnised elsewhere, the appropriate certificate shall be forwarded to the officiating Minister.

§15.3.08 Times and Seasons for Marriage.

A marriage may not be solemnised at any unseasonable hour but only between sunrise and sunset, nor in the prohibited seasons, without a special License or Faculty from the Primate, or of the Metropolitan of the Province for good and sufficient cause in the Primate or Metropolitan's opinion. The prohibited seasons are from Advent Sunday to the Octave of the Epiphany, Septuagesima to the Octave of Easter, and Rogation Sunday through the Eve of Trinity Sunday.

It is licit at all times to contract marriage privately before the Clergyman and appointed witnesses, but never clandestinely or by stealth.

§15.3.09 Clergymen to Control the Service.

§15.3.10 The Nuptial Eucharist.

It is fitting that the new-married persons should receive the Holy Communion at the time of their Marriage, or at the first opportunity after their Marriage.

CANON 15.4. CHRISTIAN LIVING AND CONVERSATION.¹⁶⁴

§15.4.01 Christian Conversation.

It is the duty of every Christian to live out our Lord's evangelistic command that we go forth into all the world, preaching the Christian Faith to all persons and converting them to become members of His flock.¹⁶⁵ In furtherance of this evangelistic and apologetic imperative, each Member of The Church must so comport himself or herself as to give a wholesome example in word and deed, in accordance with our Lord's injunction that a good tree is known by its good fruit and a defective tree by its ill fruit,¹⁶⁶ so as to commend the Christian life to all who may observe its effects, both fellow Members of The Church and denizens of the world in general.

¹⁶³ Added by the XXIth Synod of the Original Province (Athens, GA, 2015) for clarity.

¹⁶⁴ Added by the XXIst Synod of the Original Province (Athens, GA, 2015) to clarify the Christian duty to give examples of our faith in behaviour and in speech and also to exhibit compassion to all, but in so doing not to approve, condone or cooperate in or with sinful behaviour, and if necessary to reprove it.

¹⁶⁵ St. Matthew 28:19-20; St. Mark 14:15-16.

¹⁶⁶ St. Matthew 12:33; St. Luke 6:44.

§15.4.02 Christian Formation and Instruction.

In order to enable and foster Christian Conversation it is necessary that each Member of The Church be adequately instructed and prepared to explain the basic tenets of our Faith, including The Church's teachings regarding the standards of personal behaviour required of Christians in general and of Anglican Catholics in particular, and in compliance with St. Peter's injunction,¹⁶⁷ always to be ready to explain the hope that is within us.

§15.4.03 The Christian Attitude toward Sin.

- (a) The Christian Faith teaches that we are to have compassion upon all with whom we come in contact, whether saint or sinner. Sin is behaviour that offends God and thereby tends to separate sinners from their destined fellowship with Him. Secular authorities are properly God's agents in maintaining order in civil society¹⁶⁸ and thus they have no legitimate authority to approve or condone, let alone to foster and promote, behaviour that is condemned by God.
- (b) As The Church's ancient injunction teaches us, we are to love the sinner and hate the sin, whereby we understand that we are always lovingly to value and support all persons while recognizing that such love also requires us not to countenance or coöperate with any sinful behaviour, whether our own or that of others. While true charity does not always require direct confrontation with error, it may do so and it always requires us to be prepared gently and lovingly to reprove and correct such error.

TITLE XVII – OF CONGREGATIONS OF THIS CHURCH

CANON 17.1. CONGREGATIONS OF THIS CHURCH.

§17.1.01 Every Cure of Souls to be Part of a Diocese or other Jurisdiction.

Every Parish, Congregation, or other Cure of Souls of this Church or otherwise subject to the Authority of this Church shall be a constituent part of the Diocese or other Jurisdiction wherein it shall be situated, except as elsewhere provided in the Constitution of this Church and these Canons. It shall be the duty of the Dioceses and other Jurisdictions to promote the spread of the Kingdom of God by the foundation of Parishes, Congregations or other Cures, in every place within their respective jurisdictions.

§17.1.02 Control of Temporalities.

Such Parishes, Congregations or other Cures shall have and retain the ownership and title of any of their temporal lands and other possessions, which they may now have or may hereafter acquire. No Officer of this Church, acting as such officer, shall resort to any Civil Court for the purpose of depriving any Parish, Congregation, or other Cure of any property or right pertaining to property. Each and any Parish, Congregation, or other Cure may withdraw from the Diocese or other Jurisdiction wherein it shall be a constituent part and from this Church by a majority vote of its membership, or as otherwise specified in any Constitution or Canons of the Diocese or other Jurisdiction or of the Province, the Parish, Congregation or other Cure retaining its property; provided that any lawful indebtedness of the Congregation, Cure, or Parish to that Diocese or other Jurisdiction or that Province remains unaffected by such withdrawal and remains subject to litigation.

§17.1.03 Criteria for a Non-Dependent Parish, Congregation, or other Cure of Souls.

A non-dependent Congregation or other such Cure of Souls, often called a Parish, shall consist of the Rector, Incumbent, or Priest in Charge and the People thereof, of which number no fewer than twenty (20) baptised members in good standing of this Church, of which number not fewer than ten (10) shall be Communicants in good standing of this Church, and that such non-dependent Congregation or Cure shall be self-supporting in its temporalities as well as its spiritualities and capable of supporting a full-time or part-time Clergyman.

§17.1.04 Criteria for a Dependent Congregation or other such Cure of Souls.

A dependent Congregation or other Cure of Souls, often called a Mission, is any Congregation or other Cure of Souls of this Church that does not meet the criteria set out in Section 17.1.03.

§17.1.05 Debts.

Inasmuch as the Congregations retain the ownership and title of their temporal lands and other possessions except for any lawful indebtedness to the Diocese or other Jurisdiction or the Province, no Congregation may bind the Diocese or other Jurisdiction to any debts the Congregation may incur; no Diocese or other Jurisdiction may bind the Province to any debts the Diocese or other Jurisdiction may incur; and no Province may bind the Holy Synod to any debts the Province may incur.

CANON 17.2. PARISH AND OTHER RECORDS.

§17.2.01 Records or Registers to be kept in each Parish, Congregation, or other Cure.

In each Parish, Congregation, Mission, or other such Cure of this Church the Clergyman in charge, or, if the Cure be canonically vacant, then the Churchwardens, Vestrymen, or Trustees, shall be responsible for keeping and maintaining the following Records and transmitting yearly summaries of them to the appropriate official of that Diocese or other Jurisdiction no later than Ash Wednesday of each year:

- (a) A register of Baptised Members of the Parish, Congregation, Mission, or other such Cure, with a notation of transfers in or out, by Letters of Transfer or other canonical means deemed suitable in that Jurisdiction, whether the member is confirmed or a Communicant and if the member is still active in the Parish, Congregation, Mission, or other such Cure.
- (b) A Register of Communicants, with the date of their Confirmation or first Communion as nearly as it can be ascertained or from whence they were received, which Register shall be kept current, and shall indicate those who are still active in the Parish, Congregation, Mission, or other such Cure.
- (c) A Parish Register of all Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Burials within the Congregation or Charge, containing all information, and the witnesses' signatures at Baptisms and Marriages, and otherwise as may be required by custom, Canon of that Diocese or other Jurisdiction, or Civil Law, as well as the signature of the Bishop, Priest, or other Minister officiating at each service therein.
- (d) A Register Book of Services, in which shall be recorded the date, time, and place of every Service of Public Worship together with the name of the officiating Minister, the preacher, the number in attendance, and the number of Communion made.
- (e) An official Electoral Roll or roll of duly qualified Electors or such other official record whereon are enrolled together with the names of all adult members of this Church who are Communicants in good standing of that Congregation and who are, in accordance with pertinent governing documents and the regulations set forth by that Diocese or other Jurisdiction otherwise entitled to vote in Parish meetings or other such meetings on matters spiritual or ecclesiastical of that place.

§17.2.02 Examination of Registers.

The Bishop Ordinary of the Diocese or other Jurisdiction shall, at the time of his annual or Canonical Visitation to each Congregation, and also before transferring the Clergyman in charge of any such Congregation to any other Congregation or Jurisdiction, examine the Registers described in Section 17.2.01.

§17.2.03 Irregularities Punishable.

If any disorder, irregularity, or default in the records kept in the Registers is found by the Bishop Ordinary his Deputy, the Clergyman responsible for such records shall be liable, unless the default is remedied within three (3) months, to presentment and trial. No Clergyman whose Congregational records are disorderly, irregular, or not up to date may be transferred to any other- Congregation or Jurisdiction until such disorder, irregularity, or default in the records is remedied.

§17.2.04 Other Canonical Visitations.

At the times of the Canonical Visitation of the Archdeacon or Rural or Regional Dean or other such Official of the Bishop, the Records or Registers shall be exhibited for their examination. Such Official shall forward to the Bishop Ordinary thereof any matter arising in respect of such Visitation when to such Official it seems expedient.

CANON 17.3. USE OF FACILITIES OF A CONGREGATION BY NON-MEMBERS OR GROUPS OF NON-MEMBERS OF THIS CHURCH.¹⁷⁴

The physical facilities of congregations of this Church are not for public accommodation or use but are set aside for and dedicated to the service of God and the setting forth of the Faith once delivered to the Saints. Therefore, while as a matter of Christian fellowship and neighbourliness they may, in appropriate circumstances, be made available for suitable purposes by persons who are not members of this Church, their use is restricted to persons or groups who or which do not hold, advance, or advocate beliefs or practices that conflict with the faith or moral teachings of this Church or with its Constitution and Canons. Congregations' facilities may not be used for activities that contradict, or are deemed inconsistent with, the Faith or moral teachings of this Church. The Incumbent clergyman or an Officer of the Vestry designated by him has the final authority concerning use of a congregation's facilities.

These restrictions in facility use are necessary because this Church may not materially cooperate in activities or beliefs that are contrary to its faith or its Ecclesiastical Law. Allowing a congregation's facilities to be used for such activities would be a grave violation of this Church's faith and religious practice. It is likewise important that this Church and its congregations present a consistent message to the community at large, and that the staff and members of its congregations consciously maintain that message as part of their witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Use of a congregation's facilities by groups or persons who express beliefs or engage in practices contrary to this Church's faith or Ecclesiastical Law would have a severe negative impact on our witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ; it would cause confusion and scandal both to members of The Church and to the community at large, because they might conclude that by allowing such use of a congregation's facilities, this Church agrees with the beliefs or practices of the users.

Nor may a congregation's facilities be used in any way that contradicts this Church's faith or Ecclesiastical Law. The foregoing restrictions apply to all facilities of a congregation, regardless whether they are within or are without the sanctuary, because this Church holds that all property of any of its congregations is holy and is set apart to worship God and otherwise to contribute to the evangelical witness and religious life of the congregation.¹⁷⁵

CANON 17.4. MATTERS TO BE ADDRESSED BY DIOCESES.

It shall be left to the various Dioceses or other Jurisdictions of this Church to address the subjects following for proper enactment of Canons or other similar determination save wherein otherwise provided in the Constitution or Canons of this Church or of that Province:

- (a) Incorporation and organization of Parishes and Congregations and the by-laws or regulations thereof, or both;
- (b) Various Officers of the Parishes and Congregations, especially Churchwardens, Vestrymen or Trustees, and other similar officers, the obligations of their respective offices, the terms of tenure of their respective offices and their admission thereto, the mode and times of their respective elections, the requirements and qualifications therefor, and their respective duties, authority and responsibilities;
- (c) Annual Parish Meetings (sometimes known as and designated 'Annual Vestry Meetings'), their times of meeting, quorums, mode of conduct, and other related matters;
- (d) Vestries or other similar bodies and the by-laws or regulations concerning the same, of their meetings, conduct thereof, and the rules therefor, of their authority, responsibilities, and duties, and other related matters; and
- (e) Any other related parochial matters and concerns.

¹⁷⁵ See Annex 2 to these Canons.

- (h) To preserve and strengthen Christian home and family life, by upholding the Church's teachings on marriage, and by training children to love and serve the Lord; and
- (i) To promote harmony and good will in the relationships of daily life, as opportunity offers as a faithful disciple of Christ.

§18.2.02 Due Celebration of the Lord's Day.

All members of this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and other days of obligation by regular public worship in the Church, by hearing the Word of God read and taught, by resorting to the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ when the same may be had, and by other acts of devotion and works of charity, using all godly and sober conversation.

§18.2.03 Holy Communion as the Chief Act of Christian Worship.

The Holy Communion is the chief act of Christian worship. On the Lord's Day and on every other day for which a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel are provided in the Book of Common Prayer, it shall be the duty of every Priest in charge of a Congregation to see that this Sacrament is administered at the time and place at which the greater part of the Congregation may conveniently attend.

TITLE XIX – OF RELIGIOUS ORDERS, COMMUNITIES, INSTITUTES AND OTHER SOCIETIES.

CANON 19.1. RELIGIOUS ORDERS, COMMUNITIES, AND INSTITUTES.

§19.1.01 Establishment.

Men or women wishing to live the Religious Life shall apply to the Bishop of the Diocese, Missionary Diocese, or Missionary District, or other Jurisdiction of this church wherein they are canonically resident for his guidance, and for his approval of a Rule or Constitution in keeping with the intention of the Order, Community, or Institute to live the Contemplative, Active, or Mixed Religious Life, as the case may be.

§19.1.02 Disparity of Jurisdiction.

Should the persons belong to different Dioceses or other Jurisdictions, they shall apply to the Bishop having jurisdiction in the place where they intend, by God's guidance and will, to establish the Mother House of the Order, Community or Institute and obtain canonical residence therein.

§19.1.03 Disapproval by Local Ordinary subject to Appeal.

Only the Bishop having jurisdiction in the place chosen for the Mother House may approve the establishment of such Order, Community, or Institute or the Rule or Constitution thereof, but nothing in this or the foregoing Sections of this Canon shall preclude, prevent, or otherwise restrain the right of any such Petitioners from appealing to the Metropolitan of that Province if such consent and approval be alleged to have been unreasonably withheld by the Bishop having jurisdiction in that place. The Metropolitan may direct the Bishop to approve the establishment of the Order, Community or Institute, and its Rule or Constitution, if its Faith, Order, Morals, and Discipline accord with those of this Church, and if the Metropolitan upon due investigation finds that approval was unreasonably withheld.

§19.1.04 Changes in the Rule or Constitution.

Nothing in such Rule or Constitution shall be changed or altered, once approved by the Bishop, without his express consent and approval, or that of his Successor, given in writing upon due Petition of the Chapter or similar Body of that Order, Community or Institute, which Petition and Approval shall both be kept amongst the records or archives of that Diocese or other applicable Jurisdiction and of that Order, Community or Institute itself.

§19.1.07 No exemption from Jurisdiction of Bishop Ordinary.

Nothing in Section 19.1.06 shall infringe or otherwise limit the Ordinary Jurisdiction of the Bishop or of the Metropolitan to Visit any House of Holy Religion, whether Abbey, Priory, Monastery, Convent or other, lying situate within his Jurisdiction, as set forth respectively in Sections 19.5.05 and 19.5.09 and Canons 6.5 and 4.3 of these Canons, to see to the keeping of the Faith, Order, Discipline, and all laws, Constitutions, or Canons of the Holy Synod or of the Provincial or other Synod; nor shall the foregoing Section of this Canon or any other Constitution, Canon, Law, or Law Ecclesiastical or Custom be admitted and pleaded as establishing any Religious Order, Community, Institute, or House, whether Abbey, Priory, Monastery, Convent, or other, as in any way exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Bishop, Missionary Bishop, Metropolitan, or any other Episcopal Ordinary or, if the See be vacant, the Guardians of the Spiritualities thereof or their lawful Episcopal Visitor to such vacant See, or in any way not subject to his lawful pastoral concern and needful correction, except that matters affecting only the Rule or Constitution of the Order, Community, Institute or House, whether Abbey, Priory, Monastery, Convent, or other, shall be exempt.

§19.1.08 Appeals to the Metropolitan.

Nothing in any foregoing Section of this Canon or elsewhere shall in any way restrain appeals from the Bishop Ordinary of the Diocese or other Jurisdiction, or other Episcopal Ordinary, or Guardians of the Spiritualities or the Episcopal Visitor thereof in sede vacante, to the Metropolitan of the Province, or restrict any of his lawful and Canonical Metropolitan Visitorial Authority, rights, powers or duties; provided always, that when the Ordinary or other usual Visitor be himself the Metropolitan, appeals to the Metropolitan in that instance shall be made by right to the next Senior Bishop Ordinary of that Province.

§19.1.09 Liturgical Uses.

Religious Orders, Communities, or Institutes shall be free to appoint liturgical Uses not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of this Church and of that Province within which the Mother House shall lie situate, provided always, that the Bishop Ordinary having jurisdiction in that place may allow such other forms of the Divine Office as the edification of that Order, Community or Institute may so require, in place of, or in addition to, or augmentation of, the Order for Morning Prayer or the Order for Evening Prayer or Compline or the Litany as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer. Such approval, once given, shall not be withdrawn by any Successor of or to the Bishop granting such approval.

§19.1.10 Recognition not to be Withdrawn.

No Religious Order, Community, or Institute, or any House thereof, once established in accordance with this Canon and the Constitution of this Church or the Constitution or Canons of any Province, shall or may be suppressed except by Canon of the Holy Synod or of that Provincial Synod, whichever is applicable in that instance, and by a vote of three-fourths (3/4) of the whole number of each of the constituent authorities of such Synod as provided by Article XIX of the Constitution of this Church, and no Bishop or Metropolitan whatsoever shall have power to withdraw the official recognition once granted to an Order, Community, or Institute, or any House thereof, except for repeated and wilful violation of the Constitution and Canons of the Holy Synod, or of the Constitution or Canons of the Provincial Synod or of the Synod of the Diocese or other Jurisdiction, or of the Faith, Order, Morals, or Discipline of this Church, or of the Rule or Constitution of that Order, Community or Institute, or of the other Laws Ecclesiastical of this Church applicable to the same, and such withdrawal of recognition shall only be made after consultation with the College of Bishops of that Province.

§19.1.11 Dismissals from Communities and Secularization of Religious.

No fully Professed Member of any Order, Community, or Institute may be dismissed therefrom without the Member's right of appeal to the Episcopal Visitor of that Order, Community, or Institute, with further appeal to the Metropolitan of that Province, unless the Member by written and signed Declaration, given of his or her own free will and volition, waive his or her right of appeal; and no fully Professed Member or any other Member under Vows, subject to the authority of this Church, shall be released from his or her obligation to or under such Vows or Profession without written Dispensation of the Episcopal Visitor of that Order, Community or Institute.

§19.1.12 Chaplains.

Any Religious Order, Community, or Institute may elect or otherwise choose a Chaplain or Chaplains in such manner as may be according to or provided by that Rule or Constitution, but if he be a Priest not canonically resident with Licence in that Jurisdiction wherein such Order, Community, or Institute, or any House thereof, be situate, he must obtain a Licence or Faculty from the Bishop Ordinary of that Jurisdiction.

§19.1.13 Reception of Religious.

Any person previously set apart or Professed as a Religious may, upon providing satisfactory evidence of such status, be received into the Diocese or other Jurisdiction by the Bishop Ordinary thereof, and into such Order, Community, or Institute, or any House thereof, or other House as will receive the Religious in accordance with its Rule or constitution.

Members of Religious Orders, Communities, or Institutes who are in any of the Holy Orders of the Church shall be and are subject to all Constitutions, Canons and Laws Ecclesiastical of this Church concerning the Clergy, and are in no wise exempted therefrom on account of their Religious Profession or other such standing. Except where the approved Rule or Constitution provides otherwise, they shall not be required to leave the enclosure of that Order, Community or Institute in compliance with canonical duties or obligations of that Holy Order as might be applicable outside the confines of the cloister.

§19.1.15 Property of Religious Orders, Communities, or Institutes.

It shall be provided in the Rule or Constitution of every Order, Community or Institute that real estate, endowments, and any other property belonging to or held for the Order, Community or Institute shall be held in trust for that Order, Community or Institute, and shall not be held to the profit of any Member or Members thereof, or in any other way which does not accord with the secular law of the Civil Government or Governments of that place, particularly in respect of any applicable regulations or laws controlling or governing any tax-exempt status which may apply.

Religious Orders, Communities and Institutes, or their currently chosen and approved Trustees or their successors, shall have and retain the ownership and title of any of their temporal lands and other possessions which they may now have or hereafter acquire. No Officer of this Church, acting as such Officer, shall resort to any civil court for the purpose of depriving any such Religious Order, Community or Institute of any property or right pertaining to it. In this regard Religious Orders, Communities and Institutes shall have exactly the same rights as any Congregation of this Church as set forth in Article XXI of the Constitution of this Church and Section 17.1.02 of these Canons.

CANON 20.1. THE MUSIC OF THE CHURCH.

§20.1.01 Responsibility of the Clergy for Music.

(a) Clerical Authority over Music and Musicians:

It shall be the duty of every Clergyman having a Charge or Cure of Souls to see that music is used as an offering for the glory of God and as a help to the devotions of the people in accordance with the Book of Common Prayer and as authorised by the Rubrics or by the Holy Synod or any Provincial Synod of this Church. To this end, every Clergyman in charge of any Congregation, Parish, or Mission shall have authority in the administration of matters pertaining to music. He shall have the appointment, direction, and power of removal of the organist and choirmaster and of any other person or persons who may be required to assist them.

§20.1.02 Use of Plainsong and other Music.

(a) Plainsong in Services:

In accordance with historic Anglican practice and the customs of the several Western Catholic Churches, this Church allows and recommends to its Clergy and Laity the continued use of such traditional modest and distinct plainsong in sung parts of the Common Prayers in the Church, that the same may be as plainly understood as if it were read without singing.

(b) Lessons in Plainsong:

In choral or sung services the Lessons also may be sung in a plainsong tune, and likewise the Epistle and Gospel.

(c) Use, Publication, and Study of Plainsong Encouraged:

This Church encourages the continuance and further revival of plainsong, including the study, publication, and use of such texts from the manuscripts and other sources as may suitably be employed in this Church and not in conflict with its liturgical law, and to those ends the Church encourages the establishment of scholae cantorum and other similar choirs and schools.

(d) Anglican Chant Encouraged:

This Church moreover encourages retention and use of the distinctive Catholic heritage of its Anglican chant in any choral or sung services.

(e) Polyphonic Music Permitted:

Nothing in the foregoing Sub-sections shall be construed as forbidding such polyphonic compositions as have been heretofore used in the Church for parts of the service other than those sung by the Clergyman or other Officiant, or as may come to be written and are permitted by such Committee or Commission as the College of Bishops shall appoint, and through which they shall normally exercise their jus liturgicum in respect to music.

CANON 20.2. AUTHORISATION OF SPECIAL FORMS OF SERVICE.

Any Congregations, Institutions, Foundations, or Societies received from any other Eastern or Western Church which shall have placed itself under the oversight of a Bishop of this Church, may retain the forms of service they have customarily used provided that the Metropolitan and the College of Bishops of that Province shall have previously examined such forms of service and shall have been satisfied that the same is in accordance with the Faith and Doctrine of this Church, approving such forms of service for use only in such Congregations, Institutions, Foundations, or Societies.

[Requirements regarding such use of Parish property must be distributed to each Parish or Cure by the responsible Diocese or Jurisdiction, and must contain the following requirements of this Church in addition to any local provisions.]

Requirements Before Permitting Use.

The Rector, Vicar or Priest in Charge or an Officer of the Vestry designated by the incumbent must approve all uses of facilities of that Parish or Cure. Generally, priority shall be given to members of this Church, their immediate families, and organized groups that are part of the Ministry, or a Parish-sponsored organization or activity.

Parish facilities and/or equipment will be made available to non-members or groups of non-members of this Church who meet the following qualifications:

1. Groups or persons requesting facility use must affirm that their beliefs and practices and planned uses of the facilities are consistent with the faith and practice of this Church.
2. The group or person seeking facility use must submit a signed “Parish Facility Reservation Request and Agreement” form approved by the Chancellor of the Jurisdiction.
3. The group or person seeking facility use must be willing to take financial and practical responsibility for the facilities and equipment used, and must also agree to abide by the Parish’s rules of conduct for facility use, as stated below and as described in any additional instructions by Parish staff.

(a) Scheduling Events: Facility use requests shall be made to the Rector, Vicar or Priest in Charge or an Officer of the Vestry designated by him, by submitting the completed and signed “Parish Facility Reservation Request and Agreement” form. Provided there is no conflict with a previously scheduled event, the event requested will be reserved and placed on the Parish calendar only when the Rector, Vicar or Priest in Charge or an Officer of the Vestry designated by him approves the use.

(b) Fees: Use of Parish facilities is subject to a use and maintenance fee of [state monetary amount] to pay for the upkeep of Parish facilities. Parish Members are not required to pay a fee for usage because maintenance of the facilities are in general derived from Member tithes and offerings.[†]

(c) Facility Use Guidelines:

1. Smoking or use of nicotine-inducing devices is prohibited in any indoor Parish facilities.
2. Groups are required to occupy only those areas of the facility that the group has reserved.
3. Equipment, such as tables and chairs, must be returned to original placement, unless arranged otherwise prior to the event.
4. All lights must be turned off and doors locked upon departure.
5. Clean-up – if the group using the facility is to clean-up, the specifics for satisfactory clean-up will be provided. Alternatively, the Parish may charge a clean-up fee.
6. Abusive or foul language, violent behaviour, and recreational drug use are strictly prohibited on Parish premises. Any person exhibiting such behaviour will be required to leave the premises.

(d) Insurance: For all non-Parish-sponsored events, the group or person using the facilities must obtain liability insurance coverage in the amount of at least [state monetary amount] and exhibit a receipt for such coverage to the officer approving use for the event. The user must sign the “Facility Use Agreement” and also an “Indemnity and Hold Harmless Agreement.”

† [Note: Whether a Parish charges a fee for facility use is up to its discretion. However, charging below-market rates, or no fee at all, helps Parishes avoid being considered a public accommodation under secular governing law. Public accommodations are generally subject to a variety of secular laws, including laws regarding non-discrimination. For this reason it is advisable to either charge no fee (except for perhaps a cleaning or other incidental fee) or to charge a below-market fee. In any event, the Parish may also wish to require a refundable security deposit to pay for any damages to the facilities.
